PRESCOTT ARIZONA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 27, 1896

From Thursday's Daily. The ladies' social session, given by the Prescott lodge of Elks last night, was a most delightful social event. It was held in K. of P. hall which was most beautifully decorated for the occasion. The hall was filled with tables which were decorated with flowers. After the guests had arrived and had been seated a committee of Elks presented each lady with a beautiful bouquet of roses, and each gentle-

Instead of assessing the members for defraying expenses on occasions of this kind the revenue is raised by means of fines which affords a fund of amusement to all present. To collect these fines D. J. Sullivan and H. D. Pentland, representing the two extremes in stature of the members present were appointed as policemen.

The exercises were opened by a brief eddress from Chaigman Goldwater, after which the following very interesting programme was rendered:
